Course Proposal

Course Title: Human Behaviour Management

Course Code: HM 333

Target Audience: Students of 7th Semester of B.Tech program.

Course Structure: 3 – 0 – 0 – 3

Course Contents:

1. Introduction to human behaviour: Importance and core issues in human relationship management. Self-awareness, SWOT analysis, Role of values and beliefs in influencing human behaviour.

5. Diversity at work place and Decision making: Understanding people from different cultures and backgrounds, Multi-cultural group dynamics.

Grading Policy: The course will have activities, case studies, and regular examinations. Hence it would have the following evaluation components with their corresponding weightages.

Evaluation Component Weightage

1. In-semester Examination 1: 20%

2. Case Studies, assignments and activities: 30 %

3. End-semester Examination: 30 %

4. Paper Presentation: 20%

Teaching Methodology: This course is an interactive course with students, where one can understand behavioural issues at individual and group level and develop interpersonal skills. I will conduct lectures through Live Google classroom and would do the activities, case studies, and assignments through Google classroom. Exams will be conducted through COE (DAIICIT). Notes will be shared with students. The interactive sessions will be conducted with help of teaching assistants.

Course Instructor: Dr. Nandini Banerjee