The Scholarship category is Merit-cum-Means

- Scholarships of value equal to tuition fee for the duration of the program (eight semesters only) would be awarded.
- The number of scholarships would be 10 (ten) for each batch of UG Starting from Autumn 2014-15.
- Awardees would be selected on yearly basis. Year would be July – June.
- Scholarship would be given for each semester for a maximum of eight semesters (normal duration of the program). Summer semesters are not included.
- Institute may time to time change the means criterion for Merit-cum-Means Scholarship.
- Scholarship would be withdrawn in case the Institute takes any disciplinary action against the student.

Scholarship Scheme/Selection Procedure

1. Selection at the beginning

Selection of scholarship awardees will be based on the performance in the admission test (Currently JEE Mains Exam conducted by CBSE). Selection criteria would be as follows:

Scholarships would be offered to ten students with the highest All India Rank in JEE Main (conducted by CBSE) who take admission in the program, subject to a means criterion. In order to be eligible for this category of scholarship, the annual family income of the student's parent(s)/guardian(s) should not exceed Rs. 300,000/- per annum. Awardees would be required to submit suitable documents in proof of the above.

2. Selection for continuation of the scholarships

The scholarship would be given to students based on the following criteria

- The student should satisfy the means test in every academic year on the basis of the annual income in the preceding financial year.
- SPI (Semester Performance Index) obtained should be 6.50/10.00 or above in every semester. If the SPI falls below 6.50/10.00 in a particular semester, the scholarship would not be offered in the succeeding semester.
- Pass in All Courses (The student should not obtain a grade other than a passing grade in all the courses taken in a semester).
- No Disciplinary Action taken against the student.
